

Epiblast

The image displays a spatial distribution of points within a fish-like silhouette. The points are color-coded in a gradient: blue on the left (labeled 'Epiblast'), transitioning through light orange to dark red on the right (labeled 'NE'). The density of points is higher in the central and right portions. A few isolated blue points are visible below the main body of the fish.

NE