

Epiblast

This figure is a scatter plot visualization of a biological dataset, likely related to epiblasts. The data points are represented by circles of varying shades of blue and white, clustered within a light gray, irregularly shaped region. The label 'Epiblast' is positioned on the left side of the cluster, and 'NE' is positioned on the right side. The points are more densely packed on the right side, particularly in the 'NE' region.

NE